GODDARD SEMINARY

There are many music pupils in the city who are now ready for more advanced instruction. They can obtain this instruction right here at home by studying with Miss Alice Averill, one of the most competent instructors that the school has ever had. The advantages derived from belonging to a class, from taking part in the recitals, and from the other public functions of the school, are not fully appreciated by the parents. One strong feature of Miss Averill's course is the development of a taste for the best in music. As an aid in this work she plays once a week to her pupils selections from the best composers. Her pupils have always been enthusiastic over their work and have made rapid progress.

There never has been a greater demand in Barre for really competent office help than there is today. Many of our pupils in one year's time prepare themselves to meet this demand. The efficient service they are giving testifies to the quality of the instruction they receive. Many young people here in the city drop out of school before they are fitted to do any particular kind of work. To all such we present for consideration the business training that Goddard gives. See what others are doing. You can do the same. It costs something to prepare, but the preparation gives you steady employment in an agreeable kind of work. It pays.

Mrs. C. C. Hibbard and Ford Hibbard were the victims of a runaway accident Wednesday, August 31, in East Frankfort. As they were coming down a hill, the horse began to kick and run, going over a high wall onto the rocks below. Mrs. Hibbard sustained a broken arm and was otherwise injured. When help reached the scene, the horse was standing on Mrs. Hibbard's shoulder. She fractured her hip a few years ago and has since been lame. The boy escaped with only a broken tooth, but the wagon was completely demolished.

NEW YORK'S GRAFT PROBE.

Broker Bache Must Produce Books or Stand Arrest.

New York, Sept. 10.—Several hours after adjournment was taken yesterday afternoon by the legislative committee now investigating charges of corruption in public life, District Attorney Whitman issued a statement after a conference with M. Lynn Bruce, counsel for the commission, in which he declared that unless Leopold S. Bache, of the firm of J. S. Bache & company, brokers, should notify him by Monday of willingness to produce books requested of him, his arrest would follow and an indictment would be sought against him.

The novel experience of having thousands of dollars deposited to his credit by representatives of street railway interests, which, according to the testimony before the investigation committee of the legislature Thursday, had been enjoyed by former assemblyman Bedell, was shared by former Senator Goodsell of Orange county, according to evidence produced at yesterday's hearing. Extracts from the books of the brokerage firm of Ellingwood & Cunningham show that in less than five years the former senator had had no less than $28,800 placed to his credit, and that at least $13,500 of this amount had been furnished by officials of the Metropolitan Street Railway company of this city and the New York State Street Railway association.

Mr. Goodsell was placed on the stand, but did not occupy it long enough to explain the intricacies of Ellingwood & Cunningham's bookkeeping. He admitted, however, having purchased one hundred shares of New York Transportation company stock on the day that the bill granting that company extraordinary franchise privileges was passed.

Before Senator Goodsell could be asked as to his other stock transactions, all of which appeared by the evidence to have been conducted without margin, the committee took an adjournment until next Wednesday.

Our Anniversary Sale

was several hundred dollars ahead of any previous sale. The trade got real bargains, we got the money to use on fall goods and our pay comes in the way of extra advertising. This is to be a good fall for business. We are to take advantage of it. We have extra floor-space now, having that part of our store recently occupied by Mrs. Shepard for a waist and drapery department. This change will appear to you as all right, more especially as it gives us an up-to-date fitting room. Our class of trade are entitled to all of these conveniences and we are pleased to be able to supply them. Our fall advertising will appeal to you as a push for business.

DRESS GOODS

Our last sale of Dress Goods was a good one and fully appreciated. It did not end there. We are to show you and with your permission sell you from the best, most up-to-date line of Dress Goods that we have ever offered for sale.

Serries are good in all colors and the price is 50c and 75c in good width.

We have several $1.00 cloths at 87c per yard, and a beauty in a 42-inch $1.35 fine Taffeta in all of the best colors at $1.00 per yard. (This is a special.)

Our very wide Cheviots—a cloth used by best New York tailors—in all of the popular shades, at $1.35 and $1.50, that in large cities sell for 10 per cent. more.

Our Dress Trimmings were selected from a line said to be the best shown in New England. If our selections were good, our line should be a good one. (Dressmakers are invited to look these new Trimming ideas over.)

We are selling Regal Oxfords for $2.69 and Rubbers for 50c, closing them out to stay out. Best goods on the market.

NEW LACE CURTAINS

To build up our new Curtain Department, we expect to put out some very good values—not try to make it pay this season, only get the Curtain trade started our way again. These are to be shown in our new department, second floor, back end.

We will sell you a good wearing Nottingham Curtain in pairs for 50c, also Muslin Curtains for 55c, 75c and 95c, made of good, fine organdie.

This department has been in our basement for the past two years and has been neglected. Now we are to boom it, and that right now, this fall.

We have with our Lace and Muslin Curtains new Portieres, all colors and styles, new Table Covers and Couch Covers, shown under the best light in this city.

Does this mean anything to you who are trying to buy the above goods?

GARMENT DEPARTMENT

Our Garment Department, under the change, will be quite a bit larger, better lighted, and more convenient, to say nothing of a special ladies' fitting room, made especially to accommodate our fitting and alteration department.

Early buying is encouraged, for this reason: the strike in New York garment factories has been settled, and now the cost of making a garment is from one to three dollars more than before. This we can save you on garments that we have on hand and those that were bought previous to the strike. (It's an item worth considering.) Garment workers that were working 15 hours a day are now working nine hours, with an increase on each day's wages. You can figure this extra cost of manufacturing yourself.

We will make the largest bid for your Garment and Fur business that we have made in years; yes, and your Children's Garments, as these are all in our store and paid for, so we know the cost. We have a good trade for you, if you do not wait until too late.
